- If one is accepted as a participant, but fails to attend the festival, for whatever reason, the fees paid will be forfeited. There will be no refunds due to inclement weather. If an application is not accepted, the fee will be refunded.

- Parking will be provided for participants near the festival site. Vehicles must remain in the designated parking area during festival hours. Supplies and merchandise must be transported by hand truck, or carried from the vehicle to the space. (Every effort will be made by the Jubilee Committee to assist all crafters when possible, but can not be guaranteed.) No vehicles, except emergency vehicles or vehicles with the Jubilee Chairman's approval, will be allowed through the Jubilee site when site is open to the public. We will be towing this year.

- The participant hereto expressly releases Chesapeake Jubilee from any and all liability for damages, loss, injury or consequences to persons or property for any cause whatsoever, and further agrees to indemnify and hold harmless, Chesapeake Jubilee, its Officers, Directors, and/or Chairmen, against any and all claims resulting from any and all connections with the use of the site and adjacent grounds associated with the festival.

- During the event, participants are responsible for their own conduct and the conduct of employees; also responsible for materials, products, merchandise, equipment; also liable for any damage caused to their own site or others property.

Prior to your leaving the site, your assigned area must be clear of all debris and clutter. Failure to leave your area cleaned will result in your deposit being forfeited.

- The Chesapeake Jubilee Crafts Committee reserves the right to make other changes and additional conditions as deemed necessary. Upon notice to the participants, written or verbal, such changes and conditions become part of the contract, binding of the parties involved.

Terms of this contract are from date of acceptance until 10 PM, May 23, 2010.
